Alma – correctly punctuating sentences

Divide this story into sentences (around 12). Edit out repeated words. Add capitals where needed.

Challenge : Improve the piece by varying sentence starters and uplevelling vocabulary choices and punctuation.

it was a cold rainy day in april as alma walked down the dark wet alley she saw a board with everybody's name on it all of them were written in different ways then she wrote her name on the board and then she heard a creak and then she turned around and there was a doll who looked like her so she tried to open a door that went inside the shop of dolls but it wouldn't budge so she threw a snowball at it but then the door opened and she trudged in the shop and then she saw the doll she had seen from outside the doll disappeared from the shelf it was on Alma spotted it she stretched out to get the doll and then she touched its nose gently and then she ended up on the shelf until she realised that she was the doll